FARMERS BACK LABOR SHED PROJECT

IMPORTANT CHANGE MADE IN DRAFT

Amended Law Extended to 1955

The draft law, scheduled for expiration July 9, has been extended in amended form to July 1, 1955, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state draft director, reminded Texas people today.

General Wakefield noted the following important changes in the Selective Service act.

1. Men inducted will serve for 24 months as compared to 21 under the old law. Males must register at the age of 18, as formerly.
2. Men are liable for induction at age 18½ instead of 19. No man below 19 can be inducted so long as a board has eligible older men.
3. Physical and mental standards for service have been lowered, with the result that some men now classified IV-F will be found suitable for I-A.
4. The present strength of the armed forces, approximately 3½ million, can be raised to 5 million men.
5. Except for cases of extreme hardship, a man may not be deferred for dependency on the basis of a wife alone.
6. Men now or hereafter on educational, occupational, farming, or dependency grounds will remain liable for service until age 35. Men not deferred are liable only to 26th birthday.
7. Conscientious objectors to military service shall be ordered by local boards, subject to regulations prescribed by the President, to perform civilian work in the national interest for 24 months.
8. Men entering the service by way of a draft board are obligated to serve six years in the reserve after discharge.
9. High school students will be deferred until graduated, until they attain age 20, or until they fail school work.
10. Some college students may be deferred on the basis of class standing during last completed school year, or on the basis of a government-sponsored test. The local board is not bound to defer on the basis of this information, but can defer in consideration of it. Some other college students may be deferred on a less competitive basis.
11. No inducted man may be assigned overseas until he has had four months training.
12. All enlistments in the armed forces, reserve and regular, which expire after July 9, may be extended by the President for one year. No person shall have his enlistment extended a second time.

Benefits For Women Listed Under New SS Regulation

Women workers now have a greater stake in Old-age and Survivors Insurance resulting from the 1950 Amendments according to James B. Marley, Manager of the Austin Social Security Office.

Most important changes enable children of women workers to draw benefits, in addition to dependent husbands and widowers. Children under eighteen may receive benefits based on their mother's wage record, provided the mother was employed about ½ of the three-year period prior to her death. Stepchildren may qualify for benefits if they were receiving at least one-half of their support from their stepmother.

Women and children now benefit from another amendment giving wage credits for military service during World War II. Credit of $160.00 may be given for each month of active service in the armed forces between September 1940 and July 1947, even if death occurred in service. These credits toward social security insurance will qualify many widows and children who otherwise could not have qualified for payments.

In addition to the above, women may benefit under the federal insurance program in the following ways: as wage earners on their own accounts, as wives of retired workers at age sixty-five, as widows of deceased eligible wage earners, as mothers of children under age eighteen (either widows or wives of retired workers) and as dependent parents over age sixty-five.

Contact the Austin Field Office of the Social Security Administration for current information and do not rely on information furnished by others.

52 Car Loads Of Tomatoes Shipped At Gause Shed

The Gause tomato shed under the management of Jack Hogg, buyer for A. J. Tebbe and Sons of San Antonio, has shipped 52 car loads besides 21 truck loads of approximately 25,000 lbs. per truck load.

This has created a pay-roll for 68 employees including many local people. Mrs. Donnie Black of Cameron is the bookkeeper.

Prices offered at this shed have drawn trade from the surrounding territory. Highest price paid was 7-1, lowest 2½, current price is 3½.

Mr. Hogg says that he will buy as long as the green tomatoes last. Plans are being made for future deals here, turnips to be shipped in November and 50 or 60 acres of mildew resistant cantaloupes to be shipped by rail next year.

Milton F. Brown, Jr. Begins Operation Of Cameron Herald And Daily Midget

Milton F. Brown Jr. became owner and publisher of the Cameron Herald and Daily Midget July 1.

Brown came to Cameron from Lamesa where he was a member of the advertising staff of the Lamesa Daily Reporter. He is a former employee of C. C. Woodson and has worked in Brownwood, Waxahachie and Lamesa. He also has been associated with newspapers in Morton and Georgetown, Texas.

Brown attend high school in Dallas and Roswell, New Mexico, and also graduated from Junior College at Roswell. He entered the Army in 1942 and was commissioned Second Lieutenant in the Infantry in 1944. He served overseas in the Southwest Pacific area. He also attended the University of Texas for one year following the war.

The Herald was established in 1860 and is the oldest business firm in Cameron. This newspaper was first known as the Milam Centinel and was published by E. H. Regan. It was called the Cameron Centinel and was owned by B. H. Cammer from 1877 to 1881.

At that time there were only three of four stores in Cameron and there was rather a dry picking for even a weekly newspaper in this section of the state.

Major James B. Moore later purchased the paper and changed the name to the Herald.

When Major Moore became owner and publisher of the Herald he purchased a fine power press, the first brought into Milam County. An eight page paper, all home print, was issued every week and the Herald was soon known all over the state. The business was most highly prized as well as liberally patronized by the citizens of Milam County.

In the later 1886 Dr. C. W. Macune and Dr. Thomas A. Pope formed a partnership. Realizing the Herald would be a good investment, they purchased the concern. These men, after owning the paper for more than a year, realized that they could not devote sufficient time to the paper due to their practice and sold the Herald to Oscar F. McAnally and Rev. James Peeler who later gave his half to McAnally and thus he became sole proprietor and remained owner until 1905. From 1905 until 1914 the paper was owned and managed by W. A. Bowen and W. P. Stevenson. In 1914 the paper was purchased by H. B. Terrell who was an important civic leader at the time.

Such in brief is the early history of the Herald. The real biography of the paper would be a history of the city of Cameron and Milam County. The men who have been interested in the Herald through the years have been men of high standing in the community and more than average ability and while in charge of the paper, gave their best for the development of the city and county.

When the Herald was established there were only a few miles of railroad in the county. The I. G. N. had built to Rockdale in 1874, but in 1881 the Santa Fe reached Cameron and then the city gradually grew in population and trade. In the upbuilding of Cameron and the surrounding territory no agency was so potent as the Herald. It spared neither labor nor expense in advertising for the community and its efforts were successful as the history of Cameron proves.

As the achievements of the Herald are mentioned, it clearly shows that the paper has always had the best interest of the people at heart. The good citizens of the city and county have appreciated this fact and have shown by their liberal support given this newspaper, the confidence manifested in its fairness to all and its settled purpose to do all within its (turn to page eight)

Registration To Be Held Here July 12 At Yoe High School

In order to receive the benefits of the G. I. Bill, veterans must be in school on or before July 25, 1951. That is the last chance for most veterans to take advantage of government-paid education. Veterans who have had at least 90 days of active duty between September 16, 1940, and July 25, 1947 are eligible for these educational benefits.

Those who enlisted in the armed forces between October 5, 1946 and July 25, 1947, and have at least 90 days of active duty to their credit are also credited with schooling time for a period of one year plus the number of days in active service prior to July 25, 1947. Enlistees under the voluntary recruitment act are credited with their entire term of service extended past this date.

Veterans who attended school and completed the Spring semester do not have to attend summer school, but must attend each regular term from September to June.

Graduation from high school is not required for entrance to college. Veterans who are over 18 years of age may enter college on individual approval. Veterans who are not high school graduates may obtain a high school equivalency diploma by passing the General Education Development Test. This test may be taken at Blinn College.

Veterans who have had on-the-job training are eligible for a college education if they have some entitlement and if they have requested not more than one change of objective previously.

Only one more enrollment period remains at Blinn College before July 25, 1951. Registration for the second summer semester is July 16, 1951.

Veterans who plan to begin their education at Blinn College before the deadline should make application at once. You may write, phone, or see the Registrar for additional information or see your county service officer.

Veterans of Washington County and neighboring counties do not have to give up their job while attending Blinn College. It is the aim of Blinn College to serve the educational needs of the youths and adults of Washington and surrounding counties.

This service is offered to men and women, veterans and non-veterans, at night as well as during the day. Students who work at night may attend classes during the day. Students who work during the day may attend classes at night. The college recommends that students who have jobs attend on a part-time basis.

If you plan to take advantage of the educational benefits provided for you under the G. I. Bill you must be in school on or before July 25, 1951. You must take action at once. Make your application to the Registrar, Blinn College, Brenham, Texas.

Blinn College will offer a course in Salesmanship at Cameron High School this summer, if twenty or more students are interested in the evening school. Registration will be held at the Cameron High School on Thursday, July 12, from 6:00 to 9:00 P. M.

Regulations On OPS No. 7 Begins July 2

Starting Monday, July 2, merchants must plainly mark the sales price on each item they sell that is covered by Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the Office of Price Stabilization announced.

Fred C. Hopkins, price executive of the Houston District OPS, announced that additional articles have been brought under CPR 7 and that OPS has extended until July 31 the date to which retailers may continue to sell articles under CPR 7 without received OPS acknowledgement of the filing of their price charts.

In reminding merchants of the requirements for tagging of items with the selling prices, Mr. Hopkins said the price may be marked on the article itself, may be placed on a tag attached to the article or may be shown on a shelf or rack containing the item.

Also starting Monday, each store is required to post a sign stating the prices charged are not higher than OPS ceiling prices.

New items now covered by CPR 7 include toys, Christmas decorations, hand knitting yarn and crochet thread, laces and trimmings, and ribbons.

The date to which dealers can continue to sell without having received OPS acknowledgement of their price charts was extended because the OPS has insufficient help to process all the charts received, it was announced. The extension was from June 30.

Mr. Hopkins pointed out that in no case may retailers sell such articles unless he has filed a price chart, which was due by May 31.

Veterans Reminded Of Deadline For Starting GI Bill Training

The deadline for starting GI Bill training for most World War II veterans is less than one month away, on July 25, Veterans Administration today reminded veterans.

The July 25 date applies to the vast majority of World War II veterans—those discharged before July 25, 1947, VA said. Veterans discharged afterwards may begin their GI training four years from the time they left the service.

A veterans actually must be in training by the cut-off-date if he wants to continue his studies, VA emphasized. A mere application for training, filed before the cut-off date, will not do.

VA, however, considers a veteran to be training, even though he has temporarily interrupted his course for reasons beyond his control. The summer vacation is one such reason. Another would be the case of a veteran who had once started a course and now cannot resume it because he has (turn to page eight)

The Farm Bureau organization agreed recently to donate $500.00 along with $500.00 from the Chamber of Commerce to build the shed. Other members and farmers over the county will be contacted for donations for this purpose. It was agreed that the building would be built by contract.

Invincibles Sponsor Big Parade

A mass rally of eighteen Vacation Bible School in Milam County was held at First Baptist Church, Cameron, Thursday, July 5, 2:30 p. m. Between four and five hundred boys and girls participated in this meeting. They participated in group singing, enjoyed special features on the trumpet and musical saw by Rev. Ralph Powell; heard an exciting story; and learned of the interesting incidents in other schools.

Following the mass rally the schools formed along West Main for a parade around the Courthouse Square. The fire truck led the parade, and the police car was there, horse and their riders carried the flags, marchers carried banners and signs from their schools. The junior boys formed a colorful bicycle brigade. Some churches had floats and decorated cars carried the smaller boys and girls.

The meeting was sponsored by a group of young people called Invincibles.

These Invincibles are a group of young people from Baptist Colleges, Universities and Seminaries who have given this summer to teaching in Vacation Bible Schools. The Baptist State Sunday School Department has sent the group to this area this summer.

Mrs. Bertie Alford Will Go To Burleson County As HD Agent

July 1 is here! As I leave your fair County, my message to you this week is one to express to each of you my sincere thanks and appreciation of your friendship, cooperation, loyalty, and interest in Home Demonstration and 4-H work. You have been wonderful to work with while I have had that honorable privilege of being your Home Demonstration Agent.

Last week was hot in College Station, but the State 4-H Round-Up and Agents' Conference was one of inspiration. Among the 1500 4-H girls and boys, Milam County had the following to represent it over there: Bette Lee Graham from Thorndale entered the State Dress Revue and went so far as to be entered in the final judging. Another year. Bette Lee can go back and give some one some stiff competition. The girls going as delegates were Billie Swanzy of Burleson, and Berniece Fischer of Buckholts. Mrs. Edwin Fischer of Buckholts attended as an adult leader. This group stayed over until Thursday morning.

The theme of the Round-up program was "World Understanding." Personalities from several countries display flags, participated in the program activities and sat in on the entire program.

Albert Matula presented the same film to the Rotary Club Wednesday, June 27.

Bitter Battles Rage On Frontal Attacks

TOKYO, Tuesday, June 26—Red Forces opened a new attack early Tuesday near Central Korea's "iron triangle" while talk stirred of a possible ceasefire.

Communist troops struck after midnight and the battle was still raging Tuesday morning.

Allied planes ripped at the triangle area Monday, killing more than 120 Reds.

Lt. Gen James A. Van Fleet, 8th Army Commander, was informed Tuesday that the Red China Radio voiced a qualified endorsement of the suggestion by Russia's U. N. delegate Jacob Malik, for a cease fire at the 39th parallel. Van Fleet reacted by repeating what he said Sunday—"business as usual."

And the "business" was bloody and bitter.

Tuesday's mid-morning communique of the 8th Army said an unknown number of Reds attacked at five minutes after midnight east of Kumhwa. That Allied-won southeast anchor of the "iron triangle" is about 20 miles north of parallel 38 in Central Korea.

The assault was made in the same sector where Allied troops were ousted earlier from ridge positions defending Kumsong. That Communist buildup point is 12 miles northeast of Kumhwa.

The communique said the new attack still was in progress two hours later, the last report on it.

In western Korea, Allied troops broke contact and withdrew Monday night after a day of bayonet fighting.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of expressing our deepest thanks to each and everyone who helped in anyway when our home was partially destroyed by fire.

Especially do we thank Claude and Finley Blackwell who discovered the fire. We deeply appreciate the efforts of all who assisted in any way.

New Regulations For Students Under GI Bill is Announced

Thousands of veterans in trade and industrial schools will have to go to class at least 30 hours a week, beginning today, in order to be considered full-time students under the G. I. Bill, Veterans Administration said.

Only full-time students are entitled to full rates of subsistence pay, which range from $75 to $120 a month VA explained.

The new weekly minimum, which added five hours to the previous rate of 25 hours a week, is a requirement of Public Law 610, enacted by Congress nearly a year ago. That requirement, however, didn't become effective for most schools until today.

Veterans affected by the law's new attendance requirements are only those in below-college-level trade and technical courses where shop practice forms an integral part of their daily activities. Examples would be courses in automobile repair, machine and shop operations and the like.

In case veterans continue to attend such courses for 25 hours a week, VA said, they now will be considered to be in school three-quarters of the time rather than full-time, and they will receive no more than three-quarters of the GI subsistence rates.

The new 30-hour week need not consist of straight training, for the law makes allowance for a 30-minute rest period each day.

The boost in the number of hours of attendance applies only to courses where shop practice is necessary, VA emphasized. Under the law, below-college-level courses in which theoretical of classroom instruction predominates will continue to be considered full-time when a minimum of 25 hours a week of instruction is required.

Chief and Mrs. H. M. Longmire of Boston, Massachusetts are on a months vacation and are spending several days in Cameron with Mr. Longmire's father, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Longmire. They will visit in Austin, San Antonio and Houston before returning to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Black and daughters, Martha Jane and Betty Lou of Fort Worth spent Wednesday and Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Pembroke.

Cadet James C. Mitcham At Fort Lee, Virginia For Six Week Period

Cadet James C. Mitcham, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Mitcham, of Buckholts, a student at A & M College, is attending a six week Quartermaster ROTC Summer Camp at Fort Lee, Virginia.

Cadet Mitcham left for Camp on June 17 and is a senior at A & M. He is active in the business Society organization, and will participate in a variety of field exercises at Fort Lee designed to develop further his leadership ability and increase his knowledge in this activity.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Maddox and family of Compton California are visiting his son, Mr. and Mrs. Henley Maddox and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Maddox here this week.

SALT water fishermen watch the tides closely. And there is an excellent reason. Fishin' on an outgoing tide is usually poor. On an extreme high tide it is likewise not so good. But if you catch the tide just as it turns to come in that is the time to start fishin'.

AND the reason is simple. That is when the bait starts back into bays and bait is followed by bigger fish hunting something to eat. The biggest catches of mackerel and sea trout I have ever made were on an incoming tide.

THIS is particularly true in the bayous and creeks which lead to the various bays and into the Gulf. I recall one instance when I caught sea trout on one side of the boat at Chocolate Bayou and caught bass and perch (fresh water fish) on the other. The answer was that they were feeding where the incoming tide met still water because that is where shrimp, small mullet and other bait were loitering, keeping ahead of the incoming tide. Tides are more important to salt water fishermen than the moon. Fresh water fishermen shun fishin' on a full moon but my experience has been that a full moon doesn't slow down salt water fishin'.

OUT OF THE BAIT BOX

The silver eel, ribbon fish or cutlass fish are regarded as pests by fishermen but they make excellent eating if skinned and pickled. Many people regard this fish as a delicacy.

WARM WEATHER DRIVING TIPS-

REMOVE ALL WINTER COVERING FROM THE RADIATOR. IN SUMMER YOUR ENGINE'S COOLING SYSTEM NEEDS PLENTY OF AIR THRU THE RADIATOR, OR IT WILL OVERHEAT

THE COOLING SYSTEM WORKS OVERTIME IN SUMMER. TO BE SURE IT'S AT PEAK EFFICIENCY, HAVE IT CHECKED BY A "COOLING SYSTEM SPECIALIST"—AN EXPERT TRAINED TO SPOT TROUBLE SYMPTOMS IN ADVANCE

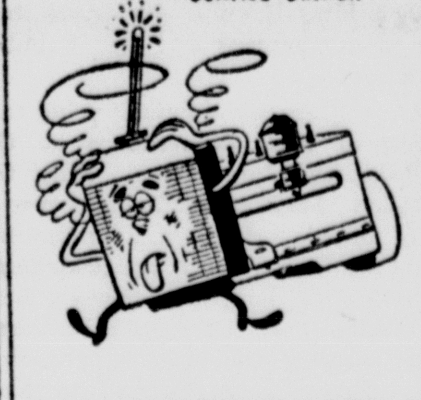

HAVE HIM DRAW YOUR ANTI-FREEZE—NO MATTER WHAT TYPE IT IS....

.... LEAVING IT IN DURING SUMMER CAN DO SERIOUS HARM TO YOUR ENGINE

WHEN DRIVING, WATCH THE TEMPERATURE GAUGE. A SUDDEN RISE—LIKE A FEVER IN A HUMAN—MEANS SOMETHING'S WRONG. DRIVE SLOWLY TO THE NEAREST SERVICE STATION

IF YOUR ENGINE IS HOT, DON'T ADD WATER UNTIL IT HAS COOLED OFF....

.... REFILL SLOWLY, WITH ENGINE RUNNING—AND USE CLEAN WATER

KEEP YOUR RADIATOR FREE OF PAPER, BUSHES, ETC. A CLOGGED RADIATOR WILL CAUSE THE ENGINE TO OVERHEAT—AND THAT CAN GET YOU IN TROUBLE

County Produces Big Crop This Year

Approximately 25 carloads of No. 1 green tomatoes have been shipped to Northern and Eastern markets from the Milano Tomato shed, operated by the Green Valley Produce Company of Weslaco.

The shed was leased this season to the company by the Milano Co-op and some of the best tomatoes that have been produced in several years in this area were bought by this company.

The price this season has not been favorable as a number of farmers have indicated that the net profit from their crops has not amounted to what was anticipated earlier in the season. Tomatoes have been plentiful this season and the quality and taste has been exceptionally good. Some of the producers over the county had to set their plants several times in order to get a good stand of tomatoes and this is one of the major expenses in raising a crop of tomatoes as well as the labor cost in the harvesting of the crop. Poison and insecticide expense has not been very heavy this year due to the fact of light insect infestation. Many farmers utilize the early control measures that kill out the bugs when they are in their early stage of destruction.

The Milano Shed has shipped as many as 40 carloads of tomatoes in one season but with the dry hot weather that has prevailed the past week or ten days, the harvest may soon come to an end.

J. L. Foster, owner and operator of the Foster Produce, said early Thursday morning he had shipped out approximately 50 carloads of No. 1 greens, No. 2 greens and pinks inclusive. Mr. Foster operated the only shed in this immediate area and will probably load out several more cars before the end of the season.

Eight New Cases Of Polio Reported

Reflecting an upsurge in Polio incidence in some portions of the state, eight new post-acute poliomyelitis patients were admitted to the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children on Monday. This was the largest group of children to enter the Gonzales treatment center in a single day this year.

Although new polio cases in the state this year are fortunately substantially under the number reported by this time in 1950, certain areas, notably around Houston and Corpus Christi, are equal or ahead of last year's count, reports indicate.

Nearly every section of the state was represented by the new Gonzales Foundation patients, with children admitted from San Antonio, and one each from Fredericksburg, Devine, Ingleside and Cuero. These children for the most part are not recent polio victims, but convalescent patients, in some instances transferred from other hospitals to make way for new acute cases.

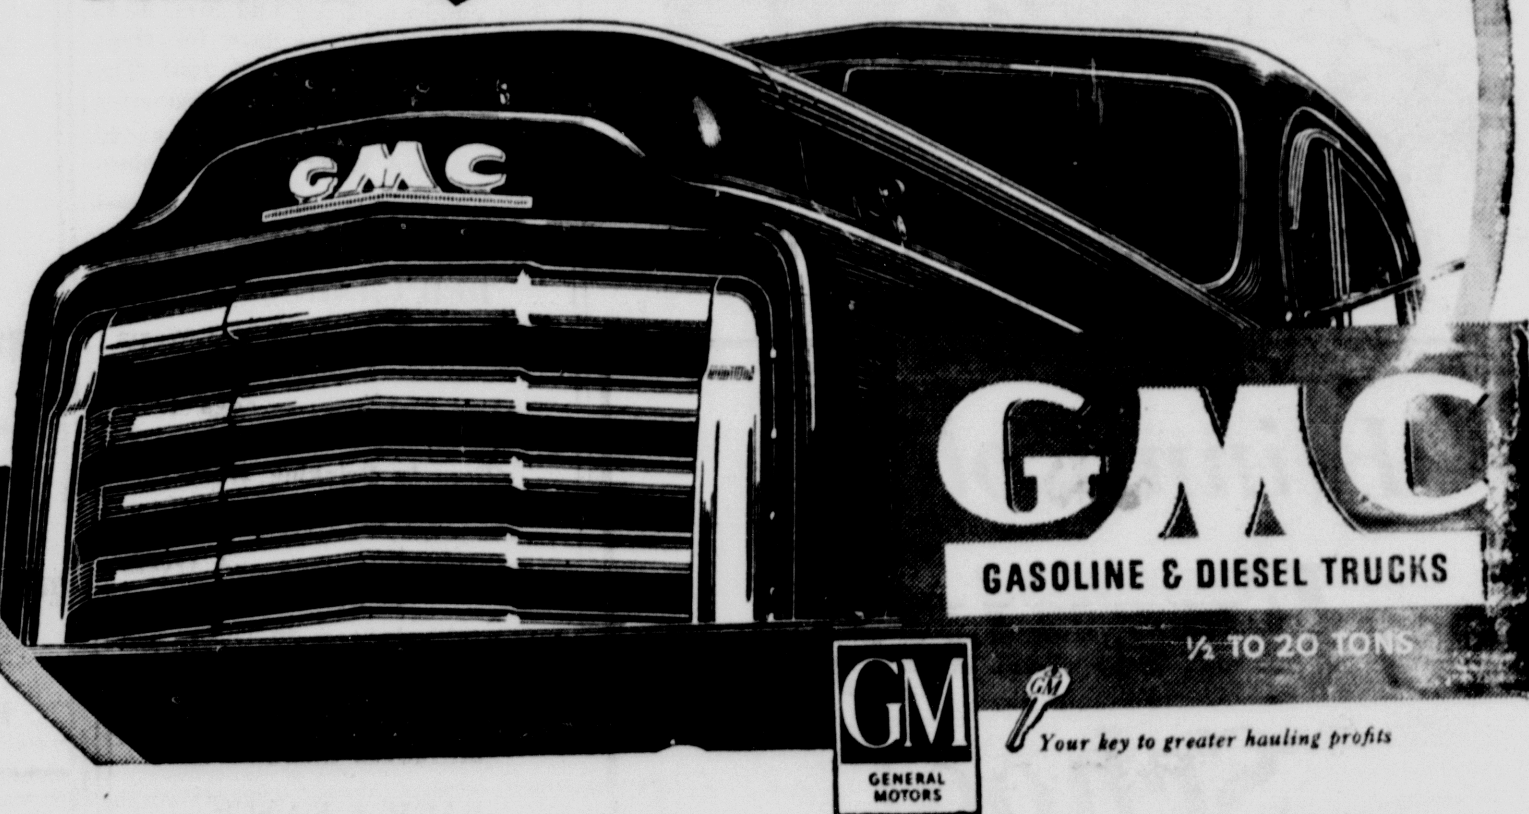

The Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation is a hospital specializing in physical medicine and rehabilitation and does not treat acute patients. Its medical program is directed at repairing the damage resulting from polio and other neuromuscular diseases and disorders.

Children admitted Monday include three-year old Charles Oravetz of Chicota; Lynn Purcell, 4, of Abilene; Donald Townsend, 4, and Raymond Ledesma, 3, of San Antonio; three-year-old Ester Borjas of Fredericksburg; Wayne Bilhartz, 21-months of age, from Devine; Marilyn Warzecha, 11-months, of Cuero; and D-Ann Huffmeyer of Ingleside.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jistel and sons, Billy and Clarence spent the week end at Schulenburg and St. Johns where they visited their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Kleiber and daughter. They also visited Mrs. Jistel's mother, Mrs. Frank Pauler and attended the church feast at St. Johns Sunday.

Dan Duryea And Gale Storm Star In Western Drama

A blazing, battering Western, filled with the gun-flaming fury of the vanished days of the old-time outlaws and inspired by the life of Al Jennings, last of the great outlaws, opens Today at the Cameron Theatre. The movie, appropriately entitled "Al Jennings of Oklahoma," was filmed in color by Technicolor. Dan Duryea and Gale Storm are co-starred in the picture.

In filming the story of Al Jennings—outlaw and hero—as told by Jennings himself, Columbia Pictures has made a roaring action film that captures the picturesque era when a man with a gun and a fast horse could launch himself on a precarious career whose dubious end was a bullet or a rope.

Al Jennings was in the roaring tradition of such desperadoes as the Daltons, the James Boys, Billy the Kid and the Doolins. Taking over a gang already organized, Jennings became the scourge of the Oklahoma Territory as he sacked banks, held up trains and looted stagecoaches. When pressed too hard by pursuing law officers, Jennings fled to New Orleans and planned to marry a beautiful belle of that city. But his taste of respectability was short lived; a railroad detective attempted, unsuccessfully, to kidnap him back to Oklahoma. Jennings hit the outlaw trail once again, for the last time. His capture ended the career of the last of the great outlaws, whose like has never been seen again.

Leland Tindall spent the holiday visiting his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ridout and family at Belton and attended the Rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. McClaren Jr. and sons David and Rex enjoyed the rodeo at Belton Monday night.

Steel mills and foundries need scrap metal badly, especially heavy cast iron such as old tractors, mowers, etc. It will pay you to do one of three things, now, with every old farm machine:

1. Fix it up and use it.
2. Sell it to a neighbor who needs it worse than you do.
3. Sell it to a commercial scrap dealer who will break it up and classify the metal for shipment to a waiting mill or foundry.

Tall columns made of white gladiolus blossoms, linked with panels of huckleberry and clusters of gardenias screened the pulpit. On each column stood a candelabrum covered with smilax and gardenias, holding 19 crystal vigil lights. Cathedral tapers marked the top of huckleberry screens.

The communion rail was garlanded with smilax and gardenias, with tall bronze epergnes, filed with gladioluses, marking each end of the railing.

The choir loft was marked with smilax and huckleberry garlands and arrangements of gladioluses. Bronze candelabra holding crystal vigil lights were used in the double aisles for the length of the church, and each pew was marked with clusters of gardenias and smilax.

Two large classic columns topped by Grecian urns filled with gladioluses were used in the foyer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of antique pure silk satin, authentic reproduction of museum piece dated 1860, (Civil War Era) and was fashioned with a wide V-neckline accented by pointed collar, made of many folds of the fabric and edged with narrow ruffle of matching

net. The elongated basque bodice buttoned down the back with tiny self covered buttons and a full skirt, shaped by the mid-century lining fell in wide bell-shape from unpres-sed pleats at the waist, to a fan-shaped sweep train. A veil fashioned with a panel of rose point, over layers of imported French illusion, forming a natural headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of large white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Kitty West Nelson of San Antonio. Bridesmaids included Mrs. J. Lee Johnson III, Mrs. Joseph A. Durkin, Misses Joanne Herbert, George Ann Brown, Jean Waggoner and Barbara Barrett, all of Fort Worth; Miss Joanne Callery of New York City, Miss Mary Jo Johnston of Houston, Miss Mary Ann Smith, Miss Mary McLain and Miss Betty Butler all of Dallas.

The brides attendants wore gowns of dawn pink Chantilly lace and net, fashioned with low oval neckline and bodice buttoned down the front to waistline. Their skirts were full with alternate bands of lace and net, floor length and were marked at the waist by tailored satin belts. They wore matching pink horsehair picture hats, dipped flatteringly to frame the face and banded with satin to form long streamers at back.

The attendants carried cascade bouquets of rubrum lilies.

Shella Johnston and Kathy Durkin, cousins of the bride were flower girls. Michael Joseph Durkin of Fort Worth was ring bearer.

The flower girls wore identical dresses of pale pink organdy with wide puritan collars of white embroidered organdy. Their skirts were full standing out like ballerinas. They wore pink shoes and pink horsehair picture hats with streamers, and carried "Rose Elfie" roses in baskets.

Mr. Coffield's father served as best man and groomsmen included George H. Covert of Austin, Jim Kirksmith, Currie McCutcheon, Niel Platter, Jack Garrett, Jr., Robert E. Abernathy Jr.,

and Ethan Stroud all of Dallas; John C. Ryan II, of Fort Worth, W. A. Peavy Jr., of Monroe, La., Dan C. Woldert and Alec Woldert, both of Tyler.

Ushers were Roy Butler, Emory Thompson Jr., and Edgar Perry III, of Austin; Henry Lovelace and George S. McCall of Waco; W. C. Bullard, W. E. Sutton and W. G. Stacy all of Houston; L. B. Pounds, Jr., Tyler, Dr. James H. Simmons, Arch Bowan and H. L. Brown, Jr., all of Houston.

Mrs. Mosser, mother of the bride chose a pale blue cord Alencon lace with fitted elongated torso and the skirt was styled with a tulip flare, by Nettie Rosenstein. Her headdress was of imported French lilies in shades of blue, fitted around chignon. Her corsage were large white orchids.

Mrs. Coffield's gown was petal pink Alencon lace, styled by Carnegie with wide portrait neckline with bias fold of net, cowl effect around shoulder. She wore a headdress of matching flowers and her corsage was large white orchids.

The reception was held in the gardens of the River Crest Country Club. The fluorescent lighting filtered through the trees, shrubs and flower beds, accenting the white and green color scheme, developed with gardenias, white gladioluses, smilax and huckleberry foliage. A screen of huckleberry bordered by white gladioluses formed the background for seven classic urns filled with white gladioluses on high colonial columns, forming a background for the receiving line. The entrance of the beautiful garden was marked by two large urns holding white gladioluses.

The round punch table in the west garden was covered with floor length slipper satin cloth, garlanded with gardenias and hot house smilax. Large arrangements of glads were used on the steps into the club house and the dancing pavilion was marked with gladioli trees and the orchestra enclosure was formed by simulated rose trees of huckleberry and white pompom 'mums. Music for the reception was furnished by Fletcher Herford and Orchestra.

The bride's cake table was in the east garden and held a large tiered confection, flanked by two tall candelabra covered with gardenias and smilax, each bearing nineteen crystal vigil lights. The table was covered with floor length cloth of slipper satin garlanded with gardenias.

The bridal pair left for a five week tour of South America. Mrs. Coffield chose as her going away attire, a suit of Italian silk tweed in black and white mixture, double breasted, large bone button trim with rounded notched revers. Her corsage was of small white Phaelonopsis orchids.

Guardsmen Bring Back Payroll of $3,500 For 2 Weeks At Camp

The officers and enlisted men of Battery C, 649th Anti-aircraft Artillery Battalion, came home on June 23rd and 24th from two weeks of summer field training with the 49th Armored Division at Camp Polk, La., those returning by truck arriving late Saturday evening, and the rest arriving by train about noon on Sunday.

They promptly changed from their khaki uniforms, combat boots and helmet liners into civilian clothes and went out to catch up on the home town news and get together with parents, wives and girl friends.

The Guardsmen brought back a payroll of slightly more than $3,500 for their two weeks at Camp Polk.

No report on the Battery's performance at camp is yet available, but it is believed it may receive a high rating. Among the things indicating this was the way the 40 mm. and 50 cal. machine gun crews, with M-Sgt. Peter F. Kunz, SFC Denson Crouch and Sfc. George Hollas in charge scored hits on the targets. It was reported that in one case where 14 rounds were fired, 11 direct hits on the target were made. And Sfc. Eugene A. Mitchan, the Motor Sergeant, reported no trouble of any kind from the Battery's vehicles when making the return trip to Cameron.

Capt. Rudolph Michalka said there were no injuries or accidents. The camp newspaper referred to the training as the mobilization readiness type. It pointed out that more time would be devoted to actual firing practice by the gun crews on the artillery range, in practice by communication and maintenance personnel—and little time in drill and parade formations.

Disaster Relief Demonstration Held

Central Texas Amateur Radio Operators came to Cameron Saturday, June 23 for a 24 hour field day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin (Zeke) Brod, two and one-half miles south of Cameron.

Members camped out and took turns operating the radios from 4 p. m. Saturday to 4 p. m. Sunday in a disaster relief demonstration. They operated off emergency power and operated on all bands, including 10, 20, 80, 75 and 40 CW.

The demonstration was planned to check emergency equipment for defense. The Club has its own power plant so that in case of emergency it can send messages by short wave if all other means of communication fail.

During operation the Club contacted stations in South America, Hawaii, New Zealand, Australia and all parts of the United States with a total of 400 stations contacted during the 24 hour period.

Mr. Brod is in contact with a network and can send and receive messages to and from the Army personnel. Anytime they have a message from a local boy take would take it. The past winter during the ice storm Mr. Brod had a chance to communicate and relate a message. This is very helpful during a case of emergency.

There were 50 people for the annual field day from Temple, Cameron, Gatesville, Moulton, Topeka, Kansas; San Antonio and Rockdale and everyone enjoyed the occasion.

After 4:00 p. m. Sunday the family and children of the Amateurs enjoyed a big barbecue with all the trimmings after which they had a program. Games were enjoyed and prizes were given to the winners.

The Club presented Zeke and Juanita Brod with two pieces of nice silver of which they are very proud.

An award will go to the station that made the most contacts and the station that contacted the longest distance. The winner of this contest will be announced as soon as it can be determined.

ELECTRIC DISHWASHER!

Never thought I'd see the day "doing dishes" would be fun. But, thanks to my new electric dishwasher, here it is! Now... instead of making a quick disappearance after dinner... everybody heads for the kitchen.

Washing dishes the electric way, you know, is a small matter of stacking them (as many as 60 at a time) safely into the dishwasher and turning a switch.

In short order, your dishes are automatically, hygienically double-washed, double-rinsed, and dried. No greasy dishcloths... no dishpan hands.

No wonder my electric dishwasher's the most popular new appliance I own!

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!

"Right this way to the Big Top! No crowding, please. Plenty of room for everybody! Hurry, hurry, hurry!"

Whether or not a real circus comes to your town this summer, do plan a circus party for the small fry, and serve these delightful little clowns. Imagine the squeals of delight that will meet their appearance.

And they are so easy to make! Just put generous amounts of snowy white shredded coconut in small serving dishes. Then invert an ice cream cone filled with chocolate ice cream (store-bought or homemade) into each dish. The coconut makes a delicate ruff which frames the little clown face. You won't need to suggest to the youngsters more than once that they should scrunch the cone around in the coconut for a wonderful chewy topping. The clown features, by the way, are made with bits of marshmallow.

Chocolate Ice Cream

- 1 to 1 1/4 squares unsweetened chocolate
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 teaspoons unflavored gelatine
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 3/4 cup sugar
- Dash of salt
- 2 cups light cream
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Add chocolate to 1/2 cup milk and heat in double boiler. When chocolate is melted, beat with rotary egg beater until blended. Combine gelatine and cold water; mix well. Add hot chocolate mixture and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Dissolve sugar and salt in hot mixture. Add cream and vanilla. Turn into freezing tray of automatic refrigerator, setting control for coldest freezing temperature. When partially frozen, remove from tray and beat with rotary egg beater until fluffy and smooth. Return to tray and freeze 30 minutes longer; stir. Then freeze until firm. Freezing time: 3 to 4 hours. Makes 1 quart.

power to help in the advancement and progress in the undertaking as well as to reach the highest plane, morally, financially and intellectually.

For almost a century the Herald has grown in strength and influence until it has become one of the leading newspapers in the county and this section of the state. The policy of The Herald has always been to maintain the highest traditions in every respect and it has always been a great influence in the development of the Community and surrounding areas.

The Herald was purchased in the early part of 1920 by the late J. B. White who owned and published the paper until his death the later part of March, 1951.

Mr. White was recognized as one of the outstanding editors and publishers in the State of Texas and always backed every progressive movement for the city and county. His outstanding ability and determined character was held high in the esteem. He possessed extra ordinary intellectual qualities for his unique observations and understandings of every problem with which he was confronted. Friends found inspiration in his viewpoints and will remember him as a moulder of thought.

In June 1939 he began publication of the Daily Midget, which continues in operation.

For many years Mrs. White was associated with these newspapers and after Mr. White's death became owner of the business, until it was purchased by Mr. Brown on July 1, 1951.

In selling the establishment to Mr. Brown, which includes the Cameron Herald and Daily Midget, Mrs. White commends the readers and customers to Mr. Brown as an experienced newspaper man. It is hoped that everyone will feel free to call on him concerning any problem that might arise. The policy of these newspapers will remain unchanged, with only one thought in mind, to help the town and county to progress with the changing times.

PLANNING BOARD—

(From The Daily)

We wish to refer briefly to a 14 year record of expenditures for street maintenance. From 1931 to 1944 inclusive the city has paid out of its revenues the staggering sum of $73,201.12 for street maintenance. We submit that this amount, or an substantial portion of it, if properly applied would have brought us many blocks of permanent type of street paving. Curtailment of these expenditures to reasonable levels will permit a handsome recovery which can be turned into permanent street improvement and for other public improvements. We do not dismiss the need for a reasonable maintenance of streets, but we call your attention to the record of your city which discloses that in 1931 the expenditure was $5726.11 whereas in 1933 it was only $2624.21. The city has the same system of streets it had 20 years ago with limited exceptions. The lowest expenditure was in 1934 when maintenance of streets cost $2582.04. In 1935 it was two times as large and in 1938 it was more than $7000.00. In 1944 the city spent $10,121.45 for the maintenance of streets. If present maintenance costs are reduced one half, or preferably two thirds the city will recover $6747.64 each year and leave $3373.81 for street maintenance. To further emphasize our point; If such a policy were instituted and using the 1944 figure spent on streets the city would conserve $134,952.80 in 20 years. At current money prices $100,000.00 in street paving bonds could be paid for in 20 years by such an economy in your street fund alone.

Control Measures Used In County

The cotton insect situation in the county at present is favorable. Most farmers carried out the early season control practices as recommended by authorities and quit poisoning by the middle of June. This was done to give the beneficial insects thirty days to build up in numbers to combat the bollworm.

Beneficial insects such as the lady beetle, lace wing fly larvae, wasp and spiders feed on aphids, bollworm eggs and square borers. This is why they are called beneficial insects. They destroy the eggs and young bollworms as well as the square borer. They do not destroy the bollweevil.

Authorities recommend that we do not poison cotton at this time unless 25% of the squares are punctured by the boll weevil or 5 or 6 boll worms and several eggs are found in examining 100 terminal buds at random in the field. No fields examined this week by the County Agent need poisoning except the P. Ward cotton in the Fox Community. Below is a list of the fields examined and the per cent of puncture.

Farmers are doing a good job watching their cotton and they should stay on the alert and examine their fields regularly to catch any outbreak of the boll weevil or boll worm.

Should the boll worm or boll weevils appear in numbers, farmers should dust or spray at 5 day intervals until 3 applications have been put on.

Twelve result and 8 method demonstrations with 945 cotton farmers in 8 communities, account for the major portion of the cotton insect field work done by the Milam County Agent during June.
